

(1) The Mighty King Leo

In a big green jungle, there lived a lion named Leo. Leo was the king of the jungle and his main task was to keep the jungle safe. Leo had a golden and shiny mane, and his roar could be heard far and wide. He took care of all the animals in the jungle. He made sure that every animal had enough food to eat and a safe place to live. All the animals in the jungle respected and loved Leo because he was so kind and wise.

One hot afternoon, a group of playful monkeys decided to climb high into the trees. They laughed and swung from branch to branch, having a great time. Suddenly, one of the branches broke. Leo heard the noise and hurried to the place. “What happened?” he asked. One of the nearby elephants replied, “The monkeys have fallen from the trees.” “Alright, let’s stay calm and check whether they need any help.” The injured monkeys were treated well. Once again, the jungle was quiet and safe.

One day, Leo heard a cry for help coming from the jungle. As usual, he quickly ran to see what was wrong. When Leo arrived, he found a group of scared animals, their eyes wide with fear. “What’s wrong?” Leo asked, his voice was calm but concerned. “It’s the hyenas, Your Majesty,” said a zebra with fear. “They’re causing trouble again, stealing our food and spreading fear.”

Leo knew he had to protect the jungle and its residents. With a loud roar, he faced the hyenas directly. “Stop!” Leo shouted firmly. “You have caused enough trouble. From now on, you will follow the rules of the jungle and be nice to others.” The hyenas scared of Leo’s power and nodded their heads in agreement. They knew that they had no choice but to obey.

After that, the jungle was peaceful again. Leo continued to rule the kingdom. The other animals were grateful to have such a noble and brave king watching over them.

As time passed, Leo grew older and wiser. His mane turned gray, and his roar wasn't as loud, but his spirit remained as strong as ever.

In summer, a big storm came to the jungle. The wind blew hard, and the rain poured. The animals were scared and didn't know what to do. Leo gathered all the animals and led them to higher ground. He comforted them with his presence. "Together, we shall weather this storm and grow stronger than before," Leo said to the animals. When the sun came out again, Leo guided them working together to fix the damage. He taught them the importance of teamwork, and soon the jungle was even more beautiful than before.

Leo's story became famous in the jungle, showing how important it is to be kind and brave. And so, Leo, the mighty king, remained in the hearts of every lion. There lies the courage to protect, the wisdom to lead, and the love to unite.
